

Name _____ Date _____

What's in the Library?

By the time you reach fifth grade, you've been in the library enough times to know the basics—a library is full of books. But do you know some of the other useful things that might be hiding someplace in your library?

► Look at the list below. Draw a line to match each item to its correct description. Then choose two resources and write in how you might use each one.

Resource

Description

- | | |
|----------------------------|---|
| 1. atlas | a. disks with searchable databases or games |
| 2. librarian | b. yearly publication with statistics on various events |
| 3. shelf labels | c. spherical shaped map of the world |
| 4. browser station | d. a book of words and their synonyms |
| 5. information posters | e. a bound collection of maps |
| 6. geographical dictionary | f. a professional who acts as your guide to the library |
| 7. CD-ROMs | g. gives a range for what is located there |
| 8. globe | h. collection of computers that search library catalog |
| 9. almanac | i. colorful pictures with useful facts on them |
| 10. thesaurus | j. lists spelling and facts about places in the world |

► How You Might Use Resources

11. _____

12. _____
